Plaintiff, United States of America, and defendant, Walter Smith, hereby stipulate that special condition 14 of the pretrial release conditions ordered on July 19, 2023, doc. 24, may be modified to read: “You must remove, and provide proof of divestment, of all electronic devices capable of accessing the Internet, including any “Smart” televisions, from your home, unless approved by the pretrial services officer. Lee Ann Smith’s iPhone must be password protected. In this regard, you must provide proof to Pretrial Services, as directed, that the device is password protected; and you may not have access to Lee Ann Smith’s iPhone.”

The purpose of this amendment is to harmonize special condition 14 with special condition 13, which allows the use of internet-capable devices, including Smart televisions (i.e.

internet-enabled televisions), if “approved in advance by the pretrial services officer.” The Smiths have four Smart TVs in their home although they are not connected to the internet (the Smiths do not have WiFi service). Pretrial does not object to their continued use of the Smart televisions but has recommended that condition 14 be modified to match condition 13.

Respectfully Submitted,
